ADIGE CM502 CNC COMBINED AUTOMATIC SAWING AND MACHINING CENTRE

- Cutting to length and sophisticated CNC machining on the same machine
- From stock length to 'finish-machined' component - automatically and on the same machine - delivering the lowest possible cost-per-component to the highest degree of accuracy
- The productivity of a sawing machine with the flexibility and precision of a machining centre - multiple, sophisticated machining operations can be performed simultaneously on both ends of the sawn billets.
